1. If \((X,d)\) is a metric space and \(Y \subseteq X\), then show that \(Y\) is closed if and only if \(Y'\) is open.

2. Show that in a metric space, the intersection of finitely many open sets is open and the union of any number of open sets is open.