The course explores development in the culture and communal organization of Jews in America from colonial times until the current day. We will identify the factors in the society of the USA that have led to the most nurturing experience of the Jewish people in its two thousand year history in the diaspora. A diverse array of sources and topic