

PX-1-415

* A DUMMY PROGRAM CONTROL is one that is set up to do no arithmetic operation but only to emit a program output pulse.

To stimulate reiteration of the integration.
 To stimulate computation of next step

FIG. B-3

USE OF THE MASTER PROGRAMMER TO CHOOSE THE NEXT PROGRAM IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE RESULT OF MAGNITUDE DISCRIMINATION